CRUSADERS LIVE FOR TODAY

Computers enter the school for students and teachers. Robots of student design take their place. Crusaders get into the swim while a paper mache bear watches the action.

PUBLICATION STAFF PLANS QUEST

For the first time a Norwell Middle School Quest staff with the Photography Activity completed all the photos in this issue. Both staffs changed during the year; thanks all!

7TH TODAY

Tomorrow - THE WORLD! Seventh graders keep moving; action for the day. Reed and Macklin and will soon let those winged feet move. Won't they?

NORWELL MIDDLE SCHOOL STAGE BAND

Under the direction of Mr. Clayton the stage band practices and plays for the student enrichment.

6TH GRADE LEARNS FOR TODAY-READY FOR ACTION

In the sixth grade band program, students refine musical skills and learn to march with precision.

The seventh grade band meets for separate instruction from Mr. Clayton during the school year and appears to be in a particular good humor.

Working as a band unit, the eighth grade brings a few years of experience to their performance. This group performs at home basketball games as well as on many other occasions.

POMS ADD PEP

This perky group adds color and zest to spark the marching band performances.

RIFLES DRILL FOR SKILL

Precise and poised this squad has Crusader pride.

CRUSADER CHOIR CREATES

Miss Fagan, director, leads the choir to perform not only as a talented vocal ensemble, but she encourages the participants to use their own unique talents.

TODAY'S MEMORIES

Pam Brubaker and Angie Rinehart share a laugh (1). Time out during exercise (2). Hurry to your locker - get down the ramp (4). Buses wait for Crusaders at the end of the day (3).

HATS OFF!

Thanks to a satff of custodians who keep the building running smoothly and looking good. Nancy Burke (1), Ray Lesh (2), and "Pug" (3) Thanks also to our librarian, Miss Heaston (4).

SIXTH CAPERS

How did that locker collect so much in so little time? Miss Ferguson reads a favorite tale to the class. Mrs. Willits' class prepares a lesson.

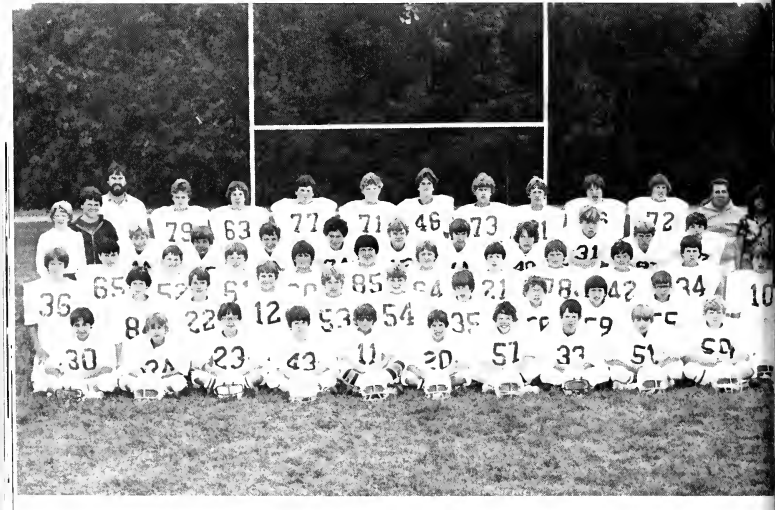
CHEERS! CRUSADERS

It takes enthusiastic 7th grade cheerleaders (L.), a crowd of Crusaders and an energetic 8th grade group (below) of cheerleaders to blend into winning support.

CRUSADER FOOTBALL
7TH GRADE TEAM



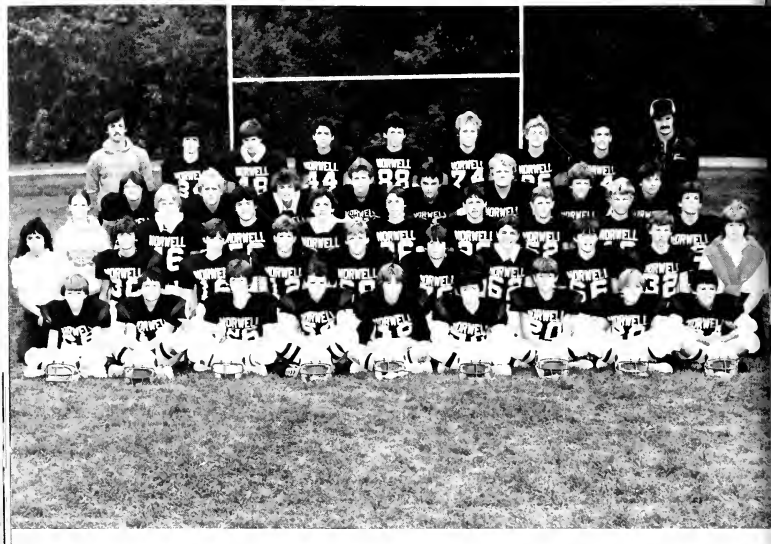
Coaches Edington and Fuller train the 7th grade team from basic play patterns to basic shoulder pad adjustment, proud to be Norwell.

NORWELL MIDDLE SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL

Miss Cross coached this 7th grade team of stalwart girls.

8TH GRADE GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

With a fine season behind them, the team radiates Crusader pride.



8TH GRADE CRUSADER FOOTBALL

GYMNASTICS

Under the direction of Mrs. Carter and with the help of Mr. Dahl, Students learn fundamental tricks and technique. Willing students use Activity Period to refine skills, and perform a program for the school.

NORWELL MIDDLE SCHOOL CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country is a tradition at Norwell, and so is a winning season. Coach Dahl and his team share pride in this practice.

REMEMBER-

Plant Sales ----
Mr. Baumgardner's study hall-
Shop class and model building-
Swimming laps and hurry to get changed or wet hair all day-

BASKETBALL

Coach Ballinger with the Crusader 7th grade boys basketball team (top). Coach introducing the ball players during a pep session (middle). Coach White introducing the 8th grade basketball team (bottom).

CRUSADER BOYS
8TH GRADE BASKETBALL

(top L-R) Smith, White, Rohr, Reed, Mills, Gavilanez, Bentz, Riley, Humaney, (Row 1) R. Bentz, Wilson, Ball, J. Reed, Macklin, J. Humaney, Hoover.

EIGHTH GRADE GIRLS BASKETBALL

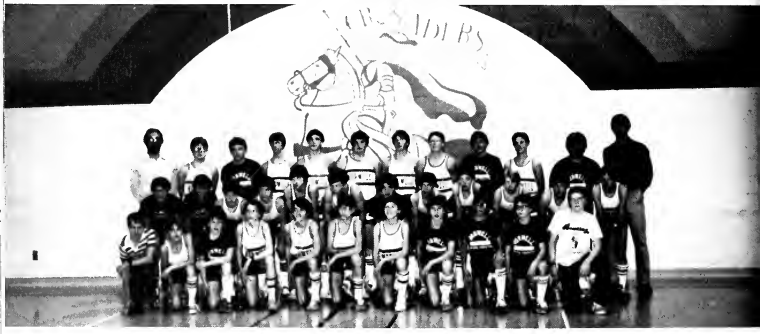
Coach Ault introduces the Crusader basketball team during an early season pep rally.



SPRING BRINGS

Track to the Middle School, but also a curious mix of new life. The science department raises small animals, but the robin comes every year without a curriculum guide.

ACTIVITY PERIOD

Middle School students satisfy their varied interests during the last period of the day. They may enter chess tournaments, board games, and express themselves in artistic crafts like macrame.

MORE ACTIVITIES

Throughout the school year interests like archery, choir and tennis are available to students with the direction of a staff member.

AROUND CAMPUS

Students find time to chat in lunch lines, while moving to class, and during a school dance.

LAST DAY

(top) Students receive awards for citizenship, scholarship, and athletics. A talent show rounds out the year with some clowning and a fine display of real talent.
